Facilitation of Broad Based Black Economic Empowerment (B-BBEE) Workshops

Client

Cape Town Routes Unlimited (CTRU), the Department of Environmental Affairs and Tourism (DEAT) and Cape Craft Design Institute (CCDI) as well as the Department of Transport and Public Works

Objectives

Assist organisations and clarify strategic issues around B-BBEE.

Tactics employed

- Covering the background of B-BBEE
- Discussing the Codes as well as practical approaches to meeting them
- Providing tools for uniformity in the measurement of BEE-scorecard results

Outcomes

After the workshops delegates indicated:

- better insight into B-BBEE legislation and the Codes of Good Practice
- more confidence about their ability to implement B-BBEE in their organisation
- now having a strategic framework to improve their company's scorecard results
- confidence to be able to develop scorecards for their own businesses
